Longhouse Messenger

A Word From Lodge Chief

Looking at my first half of my term, and looking into the future

About nine months ago, I was elected to be Lodge Chief for the 2015-16 year. This was (and still is) an amazing honor that humbled me. My term, however, didn't start until half a year ago, and now, I am looking at how far the Lodge has come since the beginning of my term, and where I am hoping that it will go over the next six months.

The thing that challenges most Lodge Chiefs in Ho-De-No-Sau-Nee is that two to three of their first six months are during the Summer, so it is quite difficult for them to achieve anything effective or important. That said, I took that time, to look over my goals that I delivered to you at the beginning of my term, and made a plan that would accomplish them in the most efficient way possible. Since then, we had a very successful Summer Fellowship and Fall Ordeal Weekends, and in addition, we have done things like LLD. But what about my goals?

One of my goals was to restart the Longhouse Messenger, and as you can see, this is the second one that was published since the beginning of my term, and there will be more to come!

Another one of my other goals was to get a Troop Order of the Arrow Rep Coordinator so that we can get more OA Troop Reps in the Lodge, and have a higher attendance to our events. While no one has stepped up to fill the position, I have done the preliminary work, and, even if no one steps up, this goal should be almost done by the end of my term.

My final goal as Lodge Chief for the year was to have a new program. More specifically, a lock-in; bring all the electronics you want, and pull an all nighter if you dare. While we haven't had it yet, we're looking to have it in February or March.

So, am I happy the way that my term is going so far? Absolutely! I have had a good start on all of my goals for the year, and have a plan for all of them so that I can finish them before the end of my term. Of course none of it would have been possible without the assistance of you, my brothers, so I thank you for bringing our Lodge to the high level where it stands.

Overall, this has been a great half year for our Lodge, and I'm sure that it will continue to get better!

A Word From the Lodge Adviser

Hello brothers,

As we embark on the holiday season I want to wish everyone a Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. It's hard to believe that the year is almost over as we close out the Centennial year of the Order of the Arrow. I still have many Centuries of Service sash patches and I would love to give them out to you. To find out what you need to do, it is best to search for "sash patch" and that will lead you to the National OA website. There are requirements for youth and adult, fill the form(s) out and get them to me at the council service center. The requirements count from July of 2014 to the end of this December so most of you should have many of the requirements done and if you are still looking for a Lodge Centennial event (one of the requirements) we do have Lodge Bowling coming up December 11th.

The 100th Anniversary of the Order of the Arrow had its highlight event this year at Michigan State University.

Arrowmen had the opportunity to attend training classes, participate in various events & even have an opportunity to kick back and have some fun. Here we have our Lodge contingent mugging for the photographer after an overnight bus trip from our Council Service Center.

Congratulations to all the members of the Lodge who attended this event. A thank you to Mrs. Conway and the rest of the adults that helped organize this event.

Looking back at the Centennial year we had 44 members attend the NE3A Section Conclave at Camp Woodlands, traveled to Camp Babcock-Hovey for Arrow Tour and had 51 contingent members and 1 staff attend the Centennial National Order of the Arrow Conference or NOAC at Michigan State University and that doesn't even cover our own Centennial events that we held locally. Also in this 100th year, National celebrated our finest arrowmen with the Centurion award for service as a youth or adult. Our youth Centurions are Jerry Sullivan III, Scott Schmidt, James Prowse and Sean Jones and our adults are Jerry Sullivan II, Gerry Robert and Roger Lemke. Congratulations to all our arrowmen who have received this once in a lifetime award for their meritorious service to the Order, our camps and council and for being that example of cheerful service that we in the order strive to follow. With that I will close this year and plan for another year ahead. As a teaser, watch out for a series of Lodge Flaps that will come out in 2016 as we get ready to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Ho-De-No-Sau-Nee Lodge in 2017. Happy holidays to you and your families and we'll see you along the trail.

A Word From Seneca Chapter Adviser

DON'T LET YOUR UNIT HIBERNATE THIS WINTER!

Michael Simkins, Seneca Chapter Adviser

Perhaps you've heard someone say Scouting is 3/4 "OUTING"? Baden-Powell intended and designed the Scouting program to primarily an outdoor activity.

So, the challenge becomes "How do we deliver an outdoor program in an area of the country where the odds of it being cold and/or snowy are pretty good food 4 months of the year?

The answer is quite simple actually, GET OUT AND ENJOY THE WINTER MONTHS! Just because a good number of other animals are tucked away for a cold winter's nap doesn't mean we should be. Our region offers an incredible number of winter activities and events to keep us busy throughout the winter;

Snowshoeing, Downhill and Cross-Country Skiing, Hiking, Ice Fishing, Skating, Tobogganing, and of course CAMPING!

That's right, you CAN (and should!) go camping in the winter. BSA offers many resources to help you learn what you need to know to enjoy an overnight, weekend or longer outing in a winter wonderland, and our region, and especially our Council camps offer plenty of winter wonderland to keep us busy!

GNFC offers annual training programs to assist you in the learning process. We'll start you out with Cold-Weather Training day, our "Winter 101" class designed to introduce you to the skills, gear and a few special tips and tricks to help you stay warm and busy. If you're still craving more frost and fun, you can join our guides for a weekend of advanced training and actual hands-on winter camping experience at our annual OKPIK weekend held in January in the heart of "Lake Effect country". For the REALLY adventurous souls, you need to head out to BSA's pinnacle winter outing expeditions at the Northern Tier High Adventure Base in Ely, MN!

Regardless of the trainings or outings you choose, encourage your units to spend more time outdoors this winter and take advantage of everything winter in Western New York has to offer!

A Word From The Lodge Troop Representative Chair

How many times have you seen this patch (see image right) on the Shoulder of a fellow Arrowman? Do you know what it means?

The patch means that the youth wearing it is his unit's Order of the Arrow Troop Representative, or OA Troop Rep, but what is an OA Troop Rep? OA Troop Rep is a leadership position that counts for rank advancement. The Senior Patrol Leader of that troop – with the approval of the Scoutmaster - appoints an arrowman (who usually asks him for the position). The Troop Rep's responsibilities are to go to his Chapter, or Lodge meetings, and bring back a report to his troop about the upcoming events. In addition, his job is to set-up and help with the Troop OA Election.

Now this may sound like a non-important job to the Order of the Arrow, but it really is. The OA Troop Rep helps get youth active in the OA by encouraging them to go to Chapter, Lodge, Section, Region, or even National Events like NOAC.

So, what is the problem with OA Troop Rep? The problem is the lack of involvement. While it is a leadership position, and the responsibilities are clear, the youth who is in that position doesn't always do his job. He doesn't fulfill his obligations, and expects his leadership to just be signed off. Even though this position helps lodges out a lot – due to the effectiveness of youth asking youth to go to events – other lodges don't have active enough troop reps to make it work. If every lodge had effective OA Troop Reps, the entirety of OA would do better.

The Arrowman Service Award

Want to earn the only patch that you can wear on your OA sash?

You have a month left to earn the patch. One of the requirements is to attend one of our loges sponsored 100th event. Well you are in luck. Complete the requirements by December 31, 2015, fill out the paperwork and submit it to our Lodge Adviser.

The award will have three categories of criteria with various requirements that Arrowmen can complete. These include components on personal growth, service to Scouting, and participation in the centennial celebration. You may be asking yourself, "How can I help?" There are two main answers to this. The one is to make sure that the OA Troop Rep who is in your unit does his job. The other is to talk to the Lodge Chief, and have him work on getting the OA Troop Reps to do there jobs all across the Lodge.

Although OA Troop Rep is a very beneficial, there are a few who aren't living up to their obligations. Sadly, because of that, the OA isn't as well off as it could be. Please, try and do your role, and make this a great position once again!
